Waimakariri District Licensing Committee Information Sheet Application for Temporary Authority

Section 136, Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012

A Temporary Authority allows a new licensee buying an existing business with an alcohol licence to trade on the same terms and conditions as the previous licensee until such time a new licence has been granted (or declined).

The Temporary Authority application fee is $296.70. You will be provided an invoice (in person or by email) after you submit your application. Please note applications will not commence until the prescribed fee has been paid.

A Temporary Authority is issued for a period of up to three months.

When a Temporary Authority application is made we would ask that the relevant and completed application forms for an On or/and Off Licence accompany it.

If this is not possible because of time limits, we would expect the full application to be lodged within two weeks of applying for the Temporary Authority.

The full application is to be submitted as set out in the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012.
